

Habib Ullah BODLA

Chief Monitoring and Chief FRAU in Punjab Irrigation Department

Mr. Habib Ullah Bodla is currently serving as Chief Monitoring and Chief FRAU in Punjab Irrigation Department. He did B.Sc. in Civil Engineering with honors, M.Sc. in Water Resources Engineering and M.Sc. in Computer Science. Development of innovative hydrological modelling decision support systems coupled with Remote Sensing and GIS tools for matching irrigation supply and demand for irrigation systems across Punjab, irrigation water management for addressing complex water management issues. Developing, applying and monitoring a strategy for flood risk management. Working with World Bank for development of flood early warning and risk assessment system. Development of Data Base for evaluation, operation and monitoring etc..